What we do

How does OAKWOOD BANK protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

These safeguards comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

How does OAKWOOD BANK collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- apply for a loan or use your credit or debit card
- give us your income information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
